Legendary is the only way to describe the H. Upmann brand, originated in Cuba in 1844.

HANDMADE CIGARS: BRAND LISTINGS

Today's Dominican-produced Upmann appeared in the U.S. for the first time in 1975 and combines a medium-bodied taste with first-class construction and a consistency which makes this brand a dependable favorite of smokers everywhere. Following the trend to thicker cigars, the ring gauge of the Corona and Lonsdale shapes were expanded from 42 to 44 in 2004.

The maduro-shade wrapper was introduced in this brand in 1998; maduro-wrapped cigars use a Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper and incorporate Mexican-grown leaves into the filler. Most shapes are available in boxes of 25, with the Monarch available in boxes of 10. The small, machine-made cigars are packed in tins of 10 (Aperitifs) and boxes of 60 (Demi-Tasse).

The Great Discovery Series is a special group of glass-tubed shapes produced for Great Discovery's of Houston, Texas beginning in 1998.

Toro	No. 50 Exquisito	6	50	CM-Ma
Double Corona	Executive	7	54	CM-Ma

This ancient brand began in Cuba but first appeared in a Honduran-manufactured blend in 1969. Hoyo de Monterrey cigars are medium-to-heavy in flavor. Handmade in Honduras, these are truly quality cigars with a large variety of sizes to give exceptional satisfaction to the smoker. The tobaccos are blended from four nations, including the Cuban-seed Honduran binder and Sumatra-seed wrappers from Ecuador. The maduro wrappers use only the finest Connecticut Broadleaf available.

The Silver Bundles series is made for Cigars by Santa Clara. It's offered in three popular sizes, packed in an inexpensive foil bundle of 25.
