Giant	A	8½	50	CM

The 1990 and 1992 Vintage lines were introduced in 2003. Both of these blends, created by Rocky Patel, feature special wrappers. The 1990 Vintage uses a Honduran Broadleaf wrapper for a full-bodied taste with a spicy flavor. The 1992 Vintage uses a Sumatra-seed leaf grown in Ecuador for the wrapper, yielding a milder spice and plenty of richness. Both are offered in boxes of 20, with the tubed models in glass tubes and the Juniors in boxes of 10. The "A" is available in a special collection box dedicated to that size.

The 1999 Vintage was introduced in 2006 and features a seven-year-old Connecticut wrapper. It's mild-to-medium in body, offered in boxes of 20.

HANDMADE CIGARS: BRAND LISTINGS

Robusto	Robusto	4½	49	Ma
Toro	Toro	6	50	CM

Royal Jamaica began in Jamaica, then transferred to the Dominican Republic in 1988 after Hurricane Gilbert destroyed the factory in Kingston. Altadis USA opened a new facility in Maypen, Jamaica and production began in late 1996 but ceased in late 2000 and manufacture was transferred to the Dominican Republic. The filler is predominantly Jamaica-grown tobaccos, treated the Jamaican root extract Bethune applied during the fermentation process. The Mexican binder combined with the Java wrapper results in a unique flavor.
